The indemnity granted to the supplier under their Public Liability policy will not apply in connection with the legal liability for claims arising out of injury to persons or damage to property, where these terms and conditions are not observed.

Height: Nobody who is taller than the outside walls of the jumping castles (if hired) when standing on the bed of the jumping castles is allowed to use the equipment.

Maximum Numbers: See the maximum numbers recommended for the ball pits and jumping castles at any one time, listed on the Products page of our website. Please note that the recommendations are a guideline only and the final numbers are to be determined by the responsible adult supervising the units.

Age: Nobody over the recommended age (provided for each product on our website) is allowed to use the equipment. The minimum number of adult attendants needed to operate each equipment safely should be one (1).

Alcohol and Drugs: It is required that the supervisor allow that no person under the influence of alcohol or any drugs be allowed to use the equipment at any time.

Suppliers Responsibility: If you have any reason to believe that the equipment has not been supplied in accordance with Health & Safety standards, do not sign these Terms and Conditions until you are satisfied the equipment is safe to use.

Weather: The above equipment has been designed for use indoor and outdoor conditions. However when it gets wet, the equipment may become slippery and therefore increase the possibility of injury to the users. In such cases the equipment should not be used. When there is high winds/bad weather, the equipment should not be used.

Responsibility for Loss, Damage or Dirty Equipment: The principle hirer accepts full and complete responsibility for all loss, damage and dirty equipment (requires considerable amount of cleaning) to the above stated equipment whilst it is under his or her custody and control. Please refer to the "Loss, Damage & Cleaning Costs" sheet attached for charges on lost, damaged and/or dirty equipment.

Supplier/erectors responsibilities:

- There are no major cracks or damages on the ball pit walls, jumping castles, slides and toys.
- Walls of the ball pit are erected correctly.
- All anchor points are intact and not damaged.
- Anchor ropes are not worn or chaffed.

- Anchor stakes and their location remain sound for continued use.
- There are no holes or rips in the surface or seams of the bed and step/front apron/slide.
- When fully inflated, all walls and towers (when fitted) are firm and upright and the pressure in the bed and step/slide are sufficient to give a reliable and firm footing.
- The blower has no exposed wires or loose bolts, screws etc and that the mesh guards over the air inlet and outlet are secured and intact.
- Electric cables are not worn or chuffed and that plugs, sockets and switches are not damaged.

Hires/Supervisors responsibilities:

- Ensure that all users of ball pits and/or jumping castles remove their footwear (socks are OK) and any other hard, sharp or dangerous objects such as buckles, pens, purses etc.
- Spectacles are best removed.
- Not allow anyone to bounce on steps/front apron/slide.
- Not allow anyone to climb or hang on the outside walls.
- Not allow users who are taller than the outside of the jumping castle walls when standing on the inflated bouncing surface to use the device.
- The operators should be proactive and take action at the first sign of misbehavior.
- Ensure equipment is not overloaded (see the recommended ages and numbers on our website).
- Larger or more boisterous children should be segregated from small ones and a number of users at any one time should be limited to a figure which allows each user enough room to play safely.

THE GENERAL RULES HAVE BEEN RECEIVED AND EXPLAINED OUTLINING MAXIMUM RECOMMENDED NUMBERS PER BALL PIT OR UNIT, AND THE RULES REGARDING SLIDE USAGE HAVE ALSO BEEN DISCUSSED AND EXPLAINED.

ANY ACCIDENT OR INJURY HOWEVER MINOR SHOULD BE REPORTED TO THE LITTLE SQUIRE REPRESENTATIVE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

The undersigned person, who confirms that they are over the age of 18, agrees as principle hirer of the above equipment, to enforce the terms and conditions stated on both sides of this paper.

These terms and conditions to prevail over all others implied or written, at all times.
